Re: I88-034 (R88-030)

Dear Senator Walker:

You have asked whether the Board of Regents has the authority to declare a Martin Luther King, Jr. school holiday. In Ariz. Atty. Gen. Op. 187-115 we stated, "[T]he Board [of Regents] may declare a 'school holiday'"

Based on the authority set out in that opinion, we reiterate that the Board of Regents has the authority to declare any school holiday.

Sincerely,

BOB CORBIN
Attorney General
